Privacy notice for the processing of personal data, pursuant to art. 13 of the GDPR

Self-declaration – COVID-19 PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES

PREAMBLE

Given the worsening of the emergency linked to the spread of the COVID-19 disease, companies, foundations and cooperatives have been forced to adopt certain measures aimed at contrasting and containing the same. The adoption of these measures by data controllers (which may include real-time detection of body temperature or filling of questionnaires or "self-declaration" forms) involves processing of personal data pursuant to art. 4, no. 2) GDPR, pursuant to which the data subject has the right to receive specific information.

To this aim, and pursuant to art. 13 GDPR, we provide you with the following information:

1. Data Controller

1000 Miglia S.r.l. (hereinafter the Company), with registered office in via Enzo Ferrari no. 4/6 - 25134 Brescia, Italy, as the Data Controller, wishes to inform you that EU Regulation no. 2016/679 (hereinafter GDPR) governs the protection of personal data in the context of the processing of the same.

The Company processes personal data based on principles of correctness, lawfulness, transparency and necessity, thus protecting your rights.

2. Subject of the processing activity

The processing relates to your personal details (e.g. name, surname, date of birth, residency) and to your health data (e.g. data relating to body temperature and/or if you are subject to quarantine for COVID-19).

The provision of personal data is optional, but if you refuse to provide your data access will not be allowed.

3. Purpose and legal basis of the processing

The processing of personal data is exclusively aimed at the implementation of the measures and protocols of prevention and protection against the COVID-19 disease adopted by the Company, also in accordance with the provisions drawn up by the Italian Ministry of Health and the Italian Health Institute (Istituto Superiore della Sanità). The processing is based on the following legal basis:

- Italian Legislative Decree no. 81/2008 (article 6, paragraph 1, letter c) GDPR)
- Decree of the Italian Prime Minister (Decreto del Presidente del Consiglio dei Ministri) dated April 26, 2020 and subsequent Decrees of the Italian Prime Minister (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter c) GDPR)
- Ordinance of the Lombardy Region (Ordinanza della Regione Lombardia) no. 604 of September 10, 2020
- Law Decree no. 6 of February 23, 2020, art. 1, letter h (article 6 paragraph 1, letter c) GDPR)
- Shared protocol for regulating measures to fight and contain the spread of the Covid-19 virus in workplaces dated March 14, 2020 and subsequent amendments and additions (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter c) GDPR)
- Art. 9, paragraph 2, letter g) GDPR.

4. Processing methods and data retention

Personal data are processed pursuant to art. 4, n. 2) GDPR by means of the following operations: collection, storage, consultation, cancellation and deletion of personal data.

The body temperature will be recorded only if the 37.5°C threshold is exceeded and for the sole purpose of documenting the reasons for the denial of access to the event areas.

The Company undertakes to adopt all technical and organizational measures appropriate to the risk, aimed at ensuring the confidentiality and dignity of data subjects.

Your personal data will be processed on paper and/or electronically and, starting from their collection, they will be retained for a reasonable period in light of the purposes of the processing activities as indicated in clause 3 and, in any case, until the end of the emergency state.

5. Communication and transfer of personal data

Your personal data will not be disclosed or communicated to third parties save if specifically required by the law (e.g. in case of request by the Italian Health Authority for tracing any close contact of a data subject tested positive for COVID-19).

Personal data will be processed exclusively by the following categories of subjects, in charge of the processing activities and adequately instructed by the Data Controller:

- Employer of the Company (Datore di lavoro della Società);
- Person responsible for the prevention and protection service (Responsabile del Servizio di Prevenzione e Protezione, RSPP);
- Company doctor;
- Other employees of the Company who operate as persons authorized to the processing activity due to their role and/or task performed in the management of the emergency.

6. Rights of data subjects

Without prejudice to specific and mandatory legal obligations related to the emergency management, data subjects may exercise all rights referred to in Articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21 and 77 GDPR with regard to the processed data.

For further information on this privacy notice or on any other privacy issue, or if you wish to exercise your rights, you can write to privacy@1000miglia.it.
